Key Takeaways

Indoor distribution boxes from Cambodian manufacturers typically range from $10 to $50 per unit, depending on material, core capacity, and customization options.

Overview of Products and Pricing

Cambodian manufacturers offer a variety of indoor distribution boxes, including electrical and optical fiber types. Prices vary based on material, size, and capacity: Plastic/ABS Indoor Distribution Boxes: Commonly used for fiber optic or electrical distribution, these boxes are lightweight, durable, and suitable for wall mounting. Prices generally start around $10–$20 per unit for small-capacity boxes (up to 8 cores) and can go up to $40–$50 per unit for larger or customized models with higher core capacity or additional features like splice trays and adapters.

Electrical Distribution Boxes: These are designed for indoor electrical connections, including phase AC, motor starters, and circuit protection. Bulk orders may reduce unit costs, but prices typically range from $15–$45 per unit, depending on specifications and manufacturer.
