Key Takeaways

Dongya offers direct sales of fiber optic switches and related optical components through verified manufacturers and wholesale suppliers. Manufacturer Overview

Dongya is a professional manufacturer specializing in fiber optic components, DC contactors, and electrical switches. Their products are widely used in telecommunications, industrial automation, and power distribution systems. The company operates multiple production lines and has extensive experience in OEM services, ensuring high-quality products and reliable delivery.

Product Offerings

- Fiber Optic Switches and Optical Cable Heads: Designed for long-haul and backbone applications, Dongya's optical components feature stranded loose tube designs, dry water-block technology, and thixotropic jelly to prevent water ingress, ensuring stable performance over wide temperature ranges.
- DC Contactors and Circuit Breakers: High and low voltage DC-rated contactors, shunts, and hydraulic magnetic circuit breakers suitable for telecom, EV, and industrial applications.

- Electrical Switches: Cord inline switches, foot switches, European, USA, British, and industrial plugs & sockets, including PRCD, GFCI, and ALCI models .
- Certifications and Quality

Dongya maintains ISO9001, ISO14001, ISO45001, and IATF16949 certifications, and many products meet international standards such as CCC, UL, CE, BSCE, and ETL/CETL . Their quality assurance programs ensure compliance with safety and performance requirements, making them suitable for global markets.

Direct Sales and Wholesale

- Bulk Purchasing: Verified suppliers offer bulk discounts and trusted deals for fiber optic switches and optical cable heads .
 - OEM Services: Dongya provides custom solutions for specific project requirements, including tailored switch designs and optical components .
 - Global Reach: Products are exported to over 200 countries, with responsive customer service and after-sales support .
- How to Purchase

Interested buyers can contact Dongya manufacturers directly through B2B platforms such as Go4WorldBusiness, Made-in-China, Europages, and Trader-China to request quotations, product catalogs, and bulk order options . These platforms provide verified supplier listings and facilitate direct communication for wholesale transactions. By sourcing directly from Dongya, buyers can access high-quality fiber optic switches, optical cable heads, and related electrical components at competitive prices with reliable delivery and technical support.
