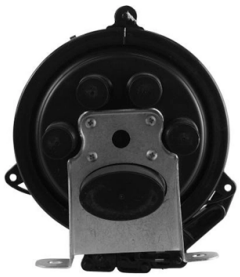
Pakistan Warranty for Coherent Optical Module QSFP28



Overview

Cisco QSFP28 100G ZR Digital Coherent Optics ModuleProduct overview The Cisco QSFP28 100G ZR module expands the portfolio of digital coherent optics (DCO).

Key Takeaways

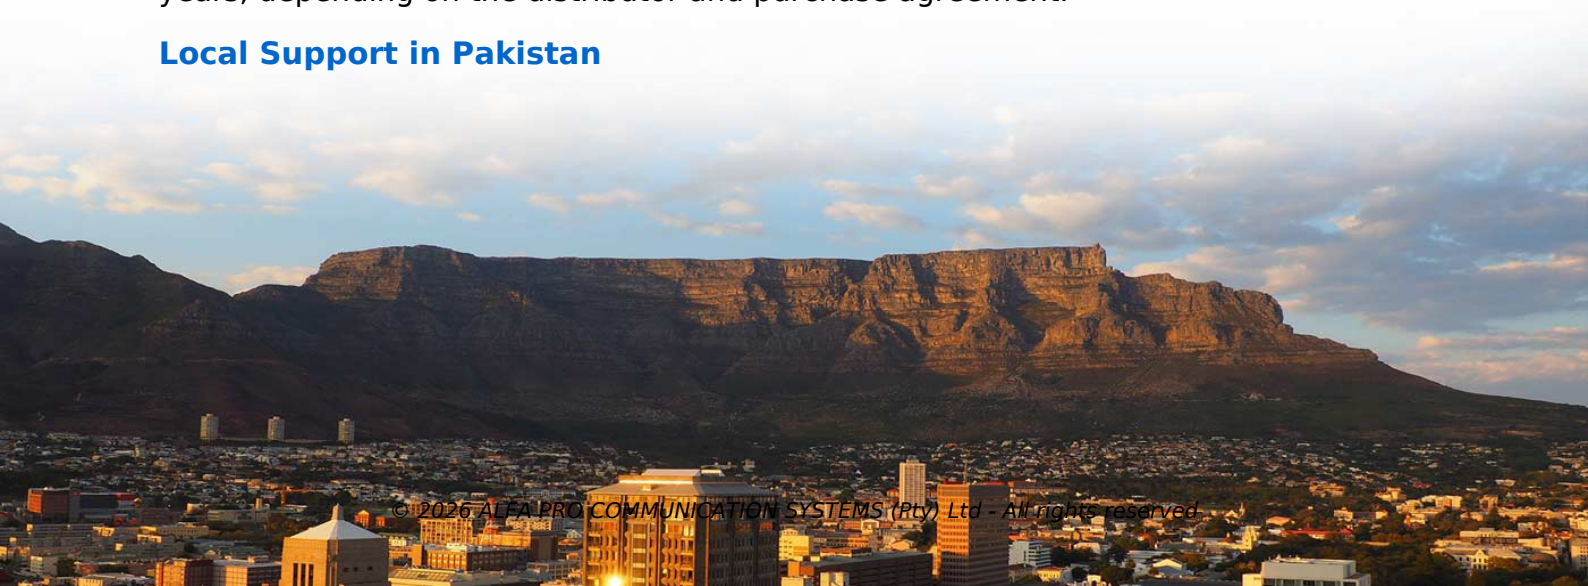
Coherent QSFP28 modules are covered by a standard manufacturer warranty, with local support available in Pakistan through authorized distributors and service partners.

Manufacturer Warranty Overview

Coherent QSFP28-DCO transceivers, including the 100G ZR modules, are fully compliant with IEEE 802. 3-2022 100GBASE-ZR standards and are backed by Coherent's global warranty policies. The warranty typically covers defects in materials and workmanship under normal use, ensuring repair or replacement of faulty modules.

Standard warranty periods for Coherent optical modules are generally one to three years, depending on the distributor and purchase agreement.

Local Support in Pakistan



© 2026 ALFA PRO COMMUNICATION SYSTEMS (Pty) Ltd - All rights reserved

Coherent operates globally and provides regional support through authorized distributors, such as EPS Global, which offers local language and currency support and ensures access to technical assistance and warranty services in Pakistan. Customers in Pakistan can: Register their modules for warranty coverage through the distributor. Access technical support for installation, troubleshooting, and firmware updates.

Request replacement or repair for defective modules under warranty terms.

Practical Considerations

Ensure the module is purchased from an authorized distributor in Pakistan to validate warranty coverage. Keep the purchase invoice and serial number for warranty claims. Industrial temperature versions of QSFP28 modules are also supported under the same warranty, suitable for deployment in street cabinets or pole mount enclosures.

Warranty coverage may vary slightly depending on the distributor's policies, so it is recommended to confirm the exact terms at the point of purchase.

Summary

Coherent QSFP28 optical modules in Pakistan are covered by the manufacturer's warranty, with support and replacement services available through authorized distributors. For the most reliable warranty service, purchase from recognized partners and register the module with Coherent or the distributor to ensure full coverage and technical assistance.
