 Pricing Overview
 Prices vary by material, size, and supplier
 Galvanised steel trays (e.g., 50mm x 25mm) are among the most affordable options
 Stainless steel and larger-width trays are higher in cost due to material and fabrication standards
 Local suppliers like Shopit provide speedy delivery and service, while international manufacturers may require quotes for bulk orders
 Recommendations
 For small to medium projects, galvanised steel trays are cost-effective and readily available locally
 For industrial or corrosive environments, stainless steel trays are recommended
 Always confirm dimensions, load capacity, and accessories with the supplier before purchase
 For a complete list of models, sizes, and current prices, you can visit Shopit South Sudan for local stock or request catalogs from manufacturers like Hai Nam and SFSP for detailed specifications and international options.
